Family Medicine Teacher of the Year Letter Guidelines

In the nominating letter, please address the nominee's current practice and teaching location, their activities and accomplishments, and their exceptional qualities that position them as a leader among family medicine teachers.

The ideal nominee:

1. Is a practicing family physician and teacher, in good standing with the AAFP;
2. Acts as a credible role model professionally and personally to their community, to other health professionals, and residents and medical students;
3. May teach full or part time, or on a volunteer basis;
4. Stands out among their colleagues for exceptional teaching skill.

Please email the full nomination packet in PDF format to ryan@coloradoafp.org by December 15.
